

NOTICE REGARDING
(1) CREDIT COUNSELING AND
(2) POST-PETITION FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COURSE

1. Before we can even file your bankruptcy case you must undergo a bankruptcy credit counseling session. This is done either on the telephone or over the internet. You must contact one of the government-approved counselors to sell you their counseling services. Upon completion you will be issued a “Bankruptcy Briefing Certificate.” You are responsible for seeing to it that your counselor sends us the certificate. We will then file it with the court when we file your case.

2. After your case has been filed you must comply with step two of the counseling requirements. You must also complete a “Financial Management Course”. This must be completed and filed within 45 days of the first meeting of creditors set for chapter 7 filers, and for chapter 13 filers, before your last payment is due to the chapter 13 trustee. Furthermore, you are required to sign an official form certifying that it was in fact you who took the Financial Management course. That form must also be filed with the court within the same time period. Do not let these dates sneak up on you. There is no grace period. If you do not take care of this you will forfeit your discharge. In other words, even though you have gone through a bankruptcy case, none of your debt will be forgiven. Do not wait. Get right on this, preferably even before we go to your first courthouse Meeting of Creditors.

Chapter 13 filers may take this course free of charge through the Chapter 13 Trustee’s office. To schedule a class, call the Trustee’s office at 423-265-2261 and tell the operator that you want to schedule a class. Additional information on the class is available on the Trustee’s website, www.ch13cha.com.

3. How to do your sessions. You can use any of the government-approved approved counselors. Typically the price is $50.00 per session for telephone or in person credit counseling. For couples, if you do the session together the price is only $50.00, for the both of you. However, if you do the sessions separately the price is $50.00 for each session. Pay them by check over the phone or debit card.

You can also take the classes over the Internet. InCharge (see below) charges $30.00 for credit counseling over the Internet and $25.00 for the Financial Management Course. It only takes about an hour and a half. (For those of you who have no banking relationship you may come by this office and pay us cash and we can pay the fees through our office.)

If you choose to use our office you will not be charged for the use of the computer or phone, however there is an additional $15.00 cash payment required if we pay the Credit Counseling or Financial Management Course fees through our bank in your behalf.

You may use any counselor you like. Here are several counselors with whom we have worked and had good results:
